THE UNITED REPUBLIC OF TANZANIA
REGIONAL ADMINISTRATION AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT
KIBAHA PRIVATE SECONDARY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION (KIPSSA)

FORM FOUR PRE-KIPSSA EXAMINATION
014 BIBLE KNOWLEDGE

Time: 3 Hours 2025

Instructions

1. This paper consists of sections A, B and C with a total of thirteen (13) questions.
2. Answer all questions from section A, five questions from section B and only two questions from section C
3. Section A carries twenty-five (25) marks, B carries forty-five (45) marks, Section C carries thirty (30) marks
4. ALL communication devices, Bibles and any other unauthorized materials are not allowed in the examination room.

SECTION A (25 MARKS)

Answer all questions

1. Choose the most correct answer from this part

   (i) What can young people today learn from Abraham's obedience and trust in God's call, even when they don't know what the future holds?

   A. Obedience to God only works when we understand the plan.
   B. It is important to always seek permission from others before following God's plan.
   C. Trusting in God's guidance may require leaving our comfort zone but leads to fulfillment.
   D. We should avoid making decisions without knowing the end result.
   E. It is better to stay in our current situation than take risks based on God's promise.

   (ii) John's message was a call to repentance of the presence of the kingdom of God. He urged Jews to revive their relationship with the LORD. He referred to a brood of vipers and warned them that if they bank on their ancestral connection with Abraham while destitute of spiritual fruits they would be cast into hell. What is the name of John's mother?

A. Mary B. Anna C. Elizabeth D. Joan E. Ruth

(iii) Bible knowledge is the study of the bible, the subject deals with accurate studying, understanding, observation, interpretation and application of the knowledge from the Bible into our daily life. What do you understand about a bible?

A. Is the Holy message from God C. Is the Holy scripture from God

B. Is from a Greek word biblos D . Is the inspired word of God

(iv) Believers who appreciated Judaism, but were not willing to be circumcised were called?

A. Christian B. God-fearers C. Proselytes D. Hellenist E. Gentile

(v) What is the name of an Apostle who is the recorded in the book of Acts his shadow healed the sick?

A. Paul B. Peter C. Stephen D. Philip E. Barnabas

(vi) In Genesis 13:1-18 we read about the story of Abram and the strife between the herdsmen of Lot and Abram. Assume you are Abraham, how could you solve the problem?

A. I could give Lot advice of punishing and fire his herdsmen.

B. I could chase Lot back to Haran

C. I could advise Lot to fast and pray for his herdsmen.

D. I could advise Lot to separate our Herdsmen and go where he wished to live

E. None of the above

(vii) This is how God showed Himself as a powerful God when the Hebrews found themselves trapped between the Sea and Pharaoh's mighty army (Exodus 14:1-15:21)

A. The Angel who went before them blocked Egyptian and Moses stroke the sea

B. Moses stroke the sea and become dry like the land Israelites crossed

C. The Angel drove the sea back all night and makes the sea dry land Egyptian died in

D. The LORD drove the sea back and Israelites passed in the midst of water

E. The cloud came and darkness blocked Egyptian in the water

(viii) The apostle who was called by Jesus and the Holy Spirit for the ministry of Gentile people.

A. Peter B. John C. Luke D. Paul E. James

(ix) During the time of Israelites oppression, God raised up the charismatic judges to help and deliver them from their enemy. Identify the group which represent minor judges.

A. Debora, Ibzan, Allon, Joktan and Medan

B. Ibzan, abdon, shuah Midian,Ishbak and Shamgar

C. Shamgar, Tola, Jail, Ibzan, Elon and Abdon

D. Shamgar, Tola, Jail, Ibzan, Elon, Medan and Abdon

E. Shamgar, Tola, Jair, Ibzan, Elon and Abdon

(x) The books of Acts and Luke are believed to have been written by one person. Scholars accept that Acts was written by Luke the physician. [Col. 4:14]. Luke is the only non-Jewish author of a New Testament book. The non-Jewish to be among of the author of a New Testament books. This seems to teach us…….

A. They were non- Jewish scholar in Jews community

B. Also educated people can be gospel workers

C. The universality of salvation.

D. Jesus chose educated people to reach high rank people

E. The Jewish community must learn from other educated people

(xi) Who does an apostle Peter referred as the cornerstone in the book of Acts 4:11?

A. Holy Spirit B. holy spirit C. Jesus D. God E. Father

(xii) What key lesson can we learn from Peter and John's actions at the temple gate?

A. Physical healing should be prioritized over spiritual needs.

B. True ministry focuses on giving money to the poor.

C. Bold faith in Jesus' name brings both healing and transformation.

D. Healing should only be done by professional doctors or pastors.

E. Beggars should be avoided because they depend on others

(xiii) What do Peter and John's actions before the Sanhedrin teach us about standing for our faith?

A. Christians should stay quiet to avoid trouble.

B. Boldness in faith is unnecessary in today's world.

C. We must obey God even when human authority forbids it.

D. Only apostles were allowed to preach boldly.

E. Preaching should only be done inside churches.

(xiv) How does the early church's example guide how Christian communities should live and care for one another today

A. Faith is a private matter and should not involve others.

B. Christian life should be lived in isolation.

C. The early church teaches the importance of community, sharing, and support.

D. Church help is only for people who pay tithes.

E. Believers should depend only on pastors for care.

(xv) What does the story of Ananias and Sapphira teach us about honesty and integrity in Christian living?

A. It's okay to lie as long as you give to the church.
B. Leaders should be excused when they sin.
C. God values truth and integrity, and dishonesty has serious consequences.
D. Public shame is worse than personal sin.
E. Money can cover up mistakes in ministry.

(xvi) What lesson do we learn from the appointment of the seven deacons in Acts 6?

A. Only pastors should do all the work in the church.
B. The church should ignore complaints and focus on prayer.
C. Inclusive leadership and fair distribution promote unity and growth.
D. Leadership should be based on popularity, not character.
E. Feeding programs are not necessary in a spiritual community.

(xvii) What does Saul's conversion teach us about God's power to transform lives?

A. Some people are too sinful to be saved.
B. Only gentle people can serve God.
C. God's grace can transform even the worst persecutors into powerful witnesses.
D. People must prove themselves for years before being accepted.
E. God prefers to use perfect people for His mission.

(xviii) What does the story of Paul and Silas in prison teach about joy and faith during trials?

A. Suffering means God is far away.
B. Complaining is the best response to injustice.
C. Faith and worship in hard times can lead to miracles and witness to others.
D. Christians should avoid trouble at all costs.
E. Singing should only be done in church services.

(xix) What can we learn from Philip's response to the Ethiopian's questions?

A. People should figure out the Bible on their own.
B. Baptism is only for people born into Christian families
C. We should be ready to explain our faith and help others grow in understanding.
D. Only pastors should teach the Bible.
E. Evangelism should only be done in church.

(xx) How does Paul's speech in Athens's guide Christians in sharing their faith in a secular or academic setting?

A. Christians should avoid intellectual discussions.

B. It's impossible to share faith with educated people.

C. Respectful, informed dialogue can open doors for sharing the Gospel.

D. Only missionaries should witness in non-Christian places.

E. Arguing aggressively is the best way to defend faith.

2. Match the descriptions of items in list A with the response in list B by writing the letter of the correct response below the corresponding item number in the sheet provided (5 marks)

LIST A	LIST B
i. Lystra	A. A place Paul preached and made many disciples.
ii. Jerusalem	B. A city which no event recorded in the first missionary journey of Paul
iii. Antioch
iv. Seleucia	C. A place where the Christian recognized from
v. Derbe	D. A place where apostles first received Holy Spirit
	E. A place where Timothy was circumcised

SECTION B (45 MARKS)

Answer only five questions from this part including question number three and four

3. Using the story of Esau and Jacob in Genesis 25 and your understanding of environmental issues today, explain:

(a) What lessons can be learned from the occupations and lifestyles of Esau and Jacob regarding responsible work?

(b) How can we apply these lessons to promote sustainable use of natural resources in your community today?

(c) What would you advise someone who earns a living through hunting or cutting trees in ways that harm the environment? Support your answer with both biblical and environmental reasoning.

4. Using the example of Paul's second missionary journey, especially his work as a tentmaker and his travels through different cities and environments, answer the following questions:

(a) What does Paul's example teach us about the importance of balancing spiritual ministry with practical work?

(b) How can Christian workers or believers today take care of the environment as they serve others?

(c) If your church or youth group wanted to organize a mission trip to a rural area with environmental problems (e.g., soil erosion, pollution), what three practical actions would you take to combine ministry with environmental conservation? Support your answers with biblical values and practical reasoning.

5. Using the story of Jesus' birth in Matthew chapters 1 and 2, answer the following questions:

(a) What values do you learn from the decisions made by Joseph and the wise men?

(b) Imagine you are part of a youth group, and one of your friends is facing shame or false accusations in the community. How would you use the example of Joseph to guide your response?

(c) If you were in a leadership position like King Herod, how would you ensure your decisions are based on truth, compassion, and responsibility rather than fear or jealousy?

6. Using the relationship between John the Baptist and Jesus in Matthew, answer the following questions:

(a) Leadership and Humility: How does John the Baptist's response to Jesus' request for baptism (Matthew 3:14-15) teach us about humility in leadership and service? How can you apply this humility in your own life or community work?

(b) Facing Doubt in Ministry: John the Baptist experienced moments of doubt while in prison (Matthew 11:2-3). If you were in a situation where your faith or purpose seemed unclear, how would you respond based on John's example of remaining faithful despite doubt?

(c) Responsibility in Calling: Both John and Jesus had specific roles in God's plan. If you had the opportunity to serve in a ministry or leadership role, what values from their examples would you carry with you? How would you balance personal ambition with serving God's purpose?

7. Basing on the story of Jesus' trial, passion, and death in Matthew 26–27, answer the following questions:

(a) Leadership Under Pressure: What can we learn from Jesus' calm and commitment during His trial and crucifixion? How can you apply this in your own challenges?

(b) Sacrifice and Integrity: Why did Jesus willingly sacrifice Himself, and what does this teach us about integrity and sacrifice?

(c) Forgiveness and Compassion: How did Jesus show forgiveness and compassion during His suffering? How can you show similar compassion when wronged?

8. Refers to the sermon on the Plain in Luke 6, answer the following questions:
   (a)How can you apply Jesus' command to love your enemies (Luke 6:27-28) in your everyday interactions?
   (b) Jesus teaches not to judge others (Luke 6:37). How can this teaching help you respond to situations where others may wrong you or behave differently from you?
   (c)Jesus talks about building your life on a solid foundation (Luke 6:47-49). What are some practical steps you can take to build your life on Jesus' teachings?

9. In Jesus first, public sermon popularly called the Sermon on the Mount, the Savior outlined principles of Christian life style. Newness of life in Christ is reflected in the Beatitudes [blessings] and Woes.
   (a) Explain the phrases blessed are poor in heart
   (b) Explain the phrases blessed are who are hungry
   (c) Explain the phrases blessed are who are weep

10. There are certain people who wanted to be followers of Jesus. Two of them volunteered to follow Jesus. The one who wanted to bury his father first was told to let the dead bury the dead. To other who volunteered Jesus neither rejected him nor accepted. He only told him He should not expect earthly glory as Jesus had no mansion where to stay.
   (a) What did Jesus mean for one to be his follower?
   (b) What does it mean to love the Lord with all your heart, soul, strength and mind?
   (c) How can you explain to the new believers the cost of Discipleship?

SECTION C (30 MARKS)

Answer only two essay questions

11. "Write an essay on how Abraham's journey of faith can inspire young people to trust God when facing an uncertain future. Include ways faith can help youth overcome fear, peer pressure, or discouragement." Only five points

12. In Genesis 16:1-16, Hagar bore a child called Ishmael. His father was Abraham the husband of Sarai. Such a child is commonly referred to as an "out grower", which, means a child born out of wedlock or marriage. What five challenges do such children face in the modern society?

13. "Based on the Book of Acts, write an essay explaining how the apostles' courage, faith, and perseverance can serve as an example for young people today. Discuss how the lessons from the early church can help modern youth overcome challenges in living out their faith, standing up for their beliefs, and making a positive impact in their communities."