THE UNITED REPUBLIC OF TANZANIA
PRESIDENT'S OFFICE
REGIONAL ADMINISTRATION AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT
RUKWA REGION FORM FOUR MOCK EXAMINATION - 2019

Code: 012 HISTORY

TIME: 3 HOURS 16th AUGUST 2019, FRIDAY AFTERNOON

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. This paper consists of sections A, B, and C
2. Answer ALL questions in section A and B and choose any three questions from section C.
3. All drawings should be in pencil
4. Cellular phones are not allowed in the examination room
5. Write your examination Number on every page of your answer sheet.

Scanned by CamScanner

SECTION A: (20 MARKS).

Answer all questions in this section

1. For each of the items (i)-(xv) choose the correct answer from among the given alternatives and write its letter beside the item number.

(i) ..... Was the first African country to attain the minority rule
A. Ghana B. Tanganyika C. Botswana D. South Africa

(ii) The imperial British East African company (IBEAC) was led by:-
A. Carl Peters B. William Macknon C. Living stone D. Charles Darwin

(iii) Versailles peace treaty was held by the victorious of the first world war in:-
A. 1914 B. 1919 C. 1918 D. 1920

(iv) The group of Ngoni Maseko who moved to Kilombero valley became known as:-
A. Mputa Maseko B. Mbunga C. Zwangendaba D. Ngoni Tuta

(v) Historical events can be arranged chronologically through the following methods EXCEPT:-
A. Carbon 14 B. Family tree C. Time chart D. Time line

(vi) One of the following was not among the social factors for the interactions among the pre colonial African societies:-
A. Migration B. Medicine C. War D. Religion

(vii) Hamerton treaty was signed between Colonel Hamerton and Sultan Seyyid Said in:-
A. 1873 B. 1845 C. 1822 D. 1872

(viii) The following were the political parties formed in Angola during the struggle for independence:-
A. MPLA, UNITA and FNLA B. MPLA, PAIGC and ANC
C. UNITA, PAIGC, and ANC D. FNLA, UNITA and PAIGC

(ix) The famous king of Mali Empire who encouraged the Trans saharan Trade was called:-
A. Askia Mohamed B. Mansa Musa C. Tunkamanin D. Suni Ally

(x) One of the following statements is not true about Tanzania in the regional intergrations
A. Tanzania is a member of EAC
B. Tanzania withdrew from SADC
C. Tanzania is a member of SADC
D. Tanzania is no longer a member of COMESA

(xi) One of the features of monopoly capitalism was:-
A. Export of raw materials
B. A tremendous decline of small capitalists
C. The emergence of financial capital
D. Primitive accumulation of capital

(xii) The middle stone Age is evidenced by the achievement of man in:-
A. Development of Bi-pedalism B. Discovery of fire
C. Discovery of iron D. Making and using pedal tools

(xiii) The following was one of the characteristics of colonial education EXCEPT:-
A. it based on rudimentary and numeracy
B. it segregated the Africans
C. it focused on literacy and numeracy
D. it reflected the interests of the Africans.

(xiv) Which of the following was NOT among the causes of great economic Depression?

Scanned by CamScanner

A. The fall of stock exchange between US, Europe and Africa
B. Unequal distribution of income in the capitalist system
C. The first world war and its impact
D. High protective tariffs by USA

(xv) Local trade among Africans societies become possible when:-
A. One society become more powerful than the others
B. People could produce more than their needs
C. Iron tools had increased
D. People produced less than their needs

2. Match the items in List A with the correct responses in List B by writing the letters of the correct responses beside the item number

LIST A	LIST B
(i) An example of early iron site in East Africa	A. The Venda
(ii) It ended when Jonas Savimbi dead in 2002	B. New world
(iii) 1845	C. Ugweno
(iv) One of its effect was the emergency of the successor to the league of Nations	D. First world war
(v) Emphasized cooperation between the colonized and the colonizer	E. Apartheid policy
	F. Angola civil war
	G. The beginning of Great Economic depression
	H. Formation of league of Nations
	I. The death of Zwangendaba
	J. Assimilation
	K. The British control of the cape
	L. The return of the skull of chief Mkwawa
	M. Second world war

SECTION B: (35 MARKS)

Answer all questions from this section

3. Briefly explain the following historical concepts.
(i) Migration labour
(ii) Mfecane uprising
(iii) Assimilation policy
(iv) Permanent crop cultivation
(v) Common wealth of Nations
(vi) Liberation through Armed struggle

4. The items from (i) – (vi) consists of four sentences which form a complete historical meaning. One of the sentences (A –E) is missing. Identify the missing sentences and write its letter beside the item numbers

(i) (1) Ghana was the first African country to get independence in 1957
(2) _____
(3) She supported the struggle for independence in other African countries such as Malawi and Belgian Congo
(4) Other countries learned the way of liberating themselves from Ghana
A. Tanganyika became the second Nation to get independence in 1961
B. In 1958 the Accra conference was held and attended by several Nationalist leaders
C. Ethiopia was not colonized at all hence become able to host the headquarter of OAU in 1963

Scanned by CamScanner

D. South Africa became the last African Nation to attain independence in 1994
E. After her independence Ghana hosted the headquarters of OAU in order to prevent further colonization of other African states

(ii) (1) Oral traditions among other sources, refers to the way of getting historical information by the word of mouth through talking and listening.
(2) The method involves the transmission of culture, traditions and customs from one generation to another in forms of riddles, songs, poems, proverbs and stories
(3) Its advantages are the method is very cheap, useful to both literates and illiterates and it is move live source.
(4) _____
A. The disadvantage of the method is that it needs more reading and writing skills
B. The disadvantage is that it is only preserved in few areas
C. The disadvantage is that it needs much attention and the power of memory
D. The disadvantage is that it costs time and money
E. The disadvantage is that it is preserved for illiterate people

(iii) (1) Mixed farming was among the agriculture practices conducted in pre-colonial African societies
(2) _____
(3) It was practiced in areas that were free from pests and diseases that had fertile soil and had reliable rainfall, water and pastures for their livestock
(4) The practice resulted into the increase of population improvement of diet, establishment of permanent settlement, and development of social and political organization
A. It meant mixing of different varieties of crops in the some field at the same time
B. It meant moving here and there with their herds searching for fertile land, pastures and water
C. It meant growing crops and rearing of animals at the same time in the same field
D. It was practiced by Maasai, Karamajong, and Tourages
E. It involved two types such as nomadic and sedentary agriculture

(iv) 1. Peasant agriculture was a colonial agricultural system where by Africans were required to grow cash crops and food crops at the same time in their small field
2. The practice was dominant in Uganda and some parts of Tanganyika in East Africa.
3. _____
4. The reasons for developing peasants agriculture in such areas included, the role played by missionaries, in accessibility of most parts, unfavorable climatic condition and strong political organizations
A. The system was characterized by the use of migrant labour and forced labour in production
B. It was characterized by severe land alienation and heavy taxations
C. It involved huge capital and the use of contract labour in production
D. It was characterized by the creation of labour reserve zones and labour recruitment agents

Scanned by CamScanner

E. It was characterized by the use of family labour hand hoes in production

(v) 1. During the British period, hospitals were concentrated in areas with dense labour forces

2. These included the urban centres, settler and company plantations

3. _____

4. The same could be said for the health services offered along the major routes of migrant laborers

A. They aimed at improving the standard of living of the Africans

B. They aimed at keeping the labourers fit for production

C. They aimed at making the Europeans inferior to the Africans

D. The Africans wanted to justify the importance of their medicine

E. The British wanted to prevent the Germans from getting treatment

(vi) 1. The Dutch settlement at the cape of South Africa began 1652

2. A group of people from Holland under the trading company called United Dutch East Indian Company led by Jan Van Riebeck arrived in South Africa.

3. _____

4. Their settlement at the cape led to land alienation, increase of white settlement, displacement and enslavement of South Africans.

A. Their main aim was farming where they grew fruits and vegetables

B. Their main aim was to introduce slave trade and sell slaves to other countries which demanded them

C. Their settlement of the cape resulted to the discovery of minerals in South Africa

D. The settled at the cape because the cape had unfavorable condition for white settlement

E. They needed the cape because the cape was a leading slave market in the region

5. Draw the sketch map of Tanzania and locate by using roman numbers

(i) Railway line from Dar es salaam, -Coastal region – Morogoro – Dodoma-Tabora to Mpanda

(ii) Railway line from Tanga to Moshi

(iii) Railway line from Tabora to Mwanza

(iv) One of the region where plantation agriculture was practiced during colonial period

(v) A region where one of the tribe successfully resisted against imposition of colonial rule in 1894.

SECTION C: (45 MARKS)

Answer three questions from this section

6. With concrete example, assess six reasons which made the Dutch to establish their permanent settlement at the cape of South Africa in the 17th C
7. Eraborate six ways in which historical information can be obtained
8. Describe six ways which were used by the colonial government to ensure the constant supply of labour in settler farms, mining sector and plantations
9. With vivid examples, analyse eight (08) challenges facing the African states since independence.

Scanned by CamScanner