PRESIDENT OFFICE
REGIONAL ADMINISTRATION AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT

FORM TWO MOCK EXAM

MARKING GUIDE.

HISTORY

SECTION A:

01

i	ii	iii	iv	v	vi	vii	viii	ix	x
C	A	C	B	B	A	D	C	B	A

01 Mark @ - Total 10 Marks

02.

i	ii	iii	iv	v
E	G	B	H	D

1 mark @ - Total 5 marks

03. (i) A State is an occupied geographical area with the power to exercise some political authority over its people and resources. A state is always under one political authority.

ii) Akasamva: This was a system which required the tenants to provide labour for government projects.

iii) Production; It refers to the process of making goods and services to meet human needs /or is conscious and Purposeful human activity which involves transforming or modifying natural resources to human needs. It includes distribution and consumption.

(v) Fossils: Are the remains of an ancient plant or animals embedded in rock.

(v) Archives: These are places where documents and old written records are kept. These documents ~~are~~ come from both individuals people as well as from public and private institutions.

•2 marks @ Total 10 marks

4.

1st	2nd	3rd	4th	5th
IV	ii	V	iii	i

2 marks @ Total 10 mark

05 (i) The traders from Asia came to and from East Africa by the assistance of the strong winds known as Monsoon winds. The winds blew across the Indian ocean and carried dhows from Asia to East Africa. The winds which blew to the East African coast from the north-East are called North East Monsoon winds from November to April and the winds brought traders from Asia to the Asia are called ~~Nort~~ South East blew from may to october

(ii) It was called Primitive communalism because of the low level of productive forces such as the use of sticks and stone and also there was no exploitation of man by man

iii) Because, they are the one who discovered the oldest known human skull in 1959. It was known as Zinjanthropus boisei at Olduvai Gorge in north-eastern Tanzania

iv) It is because in middle Stone Age the tools produced were of high quality, better and specialized than in old Stone Age but also man manage to live in different environment and during this period man discover and use fire.

v) Iron helped man to expand agriculture, the discovery of iron enabled man to develop tools for agricultural production.

02 marks - Total 10 marks

06 (i) Shifting cultivation, this involves the movement of farmers from one place to another. It is common in grassland areas with long dry season and scattered trees. WHILE Permanent Crop Cultivation involved farming of permanent crops. This was practiced in fertile areas with heavy rainfall and thick vegetation.

ii) Nyarubanja; This was a feudal system of production that evolved in Buhaya, which was based on land ownership. WHILE Ubugabire; This was a feudal relation in Rwanda and Burundi which based on cattle ownership

iii) Moran; These were the Maasai warrior who found in between age group of 15 - 25. WHILE Laibon These were senior elders among the maasai

iv) Museums are places or buildings in which historical objects are kept for example animal fossils etc WHILE Historical sites are places where remains of past human activities and cultures are found Include remnants of ancient settlements etc

v) Cow-horn technique, It is a method of surrounding an enemy and attacking from all sides giving the enemy little chance to escape WHILE is a military strategy of destroying everything that allows an enemy military force to be able to fight a war including destruction of water, food, humans, animals etc

02 MARKS - Total 10 marks

Impact of Ngoni migration

(i) Occurance of frequent wars
(ii) Intermarriage
(iii) The rise and of strong centralized states
(iv) Decline of some states in central and East Africa
(v) The decline of agricultural production
(vi) Consolidation of slave trade

2 marks @ Total 10 marks

08. (i) Exploration of the coast of Africa and find a sea route to India.
(ii) Creating portuguese Trade empire
(iii) They wanted to use East Africa as a resting station while on their way to and from India
(iv) Spread christianity
(v) searching for the king prester John.

2marks @ Total 10 mark

09. (i) ~~Ujiji~~ Asante
(ii) ~~Nyamwezi~~ It was because of Mfecane War
(iii) Shaduf Irrigation system
(iv) Zinjanthropus
(v) Aksum

2 Marks @ Total 10 marks

SECTION C

10. Introduction;

Define Early Contact; This was a period when East African began to interact with people from Middle East and Far East as early as 200 BCE. These contacts were mostly developed through commercial activities and the visitors were Persians, Syrians, Indians, Chinese, Lebanese, Burma and Arabians.

Any relevant Introduction

02½ Marks.

Main Body:

Consequences of early contact in East Africa.

(i) Intermarriages
(ii) Emergence and development of Kiswahili
(iii) Introduction and spread of Islam and Arabic culture
(iv) The growth of International trade across the Indian ocean
(v) Emergence of Unequal levels of development btn East Africa the middle East and Far East
(vi) Rise of Some Independent Coastal City States

2 marks @ Total 12 marks

Conclusion

Any relevant Conclusion:

1 mark.

Introduction – 2 marks
Main body – 12 marks
Conclusion – 1 mark
Total 15 Marks