PRIME MINISTER

REGIONAL ADMINISTRATION AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT

ARUSHA REGION

FORM TWO PRE-MOCK MARKING SCHEME

SPORT STUDIES

01 1 mark for each item @ = 10 marks

(i)	(ii)	(iii)	(iv)	(v)	(vi)	(vii)	(viii)	(ix)	X
B	C	C	E	A	B	B	B	A	B

02 1 mark for each item @ = 5 marks

(i)	(ii)	(iii)	(iv)	(v)
D	E	A	C	F

03 Five (05) importanee of the ball control in footbell game situation.

(i) It facilitaties accurate passing and shooting
(ii) It creates space and opportunities.
(iii) Improves Game Tempo
(iv) It enhances confidence
(v) It maintains possession (2 marks for each item)

relationship between sport studies and other subject

(i) Biology: Relies in the study of human anatomy, physiology, health and safety issues

(ii) Geography: is evident in the context of outdoor physical activities. Geographical knowledge, skills and features in hence participants choice of sports and recreational activities.

(iii) physics: is significant as they share knowledge on biomechanics and Kinesiology

(iv) History: And sport studies can be seen through the evolution of sport and physical activities over time

(v) Mathematics and sport studies is used to analyse and interpret data related to fitness levels, performance metrics and biomechanics.

(2 marks for each item)

05 Five steps to follow when executing chest puss in netball.

(i) Stand with legs shoulder width apart, slightly bounding your knees and stable grip.

(ii) Hold the ball with two hands at chest height to ensure a strong

(iii) spread your fingers around the side of the ball and point your thumbs towards the back, with your elbows bent prepared to push it

(iv) push the ball forward by straightening your elbows, fingers and thumbs delivering the ball and follow through to ensure and power.

(v) Step forward after passing the ball by transfering your weight onto the front foot, helping to propel the ball and maintain balance.

(2 marks each item)

(a) physical activity is any movement of the body that requires expenditure example running, Jumping, ~~&~~ cooking.

(b) Flexibility
The degree of movement of a body joint towards its full range of motion.

(c) Reaction time
is the time elapsed between stimulation and the beginning of the response.

(d) cardiovascular endurance
Refers to the ability of the heart and lungs to work together to provide the needed oxygen to the body.

(e) Body composition is the proportion of fat and fat free mass of the body.
(2 marks for each item)

7 Functions of Sport Studies
(i) promote physical health
(ii) Develops skills / talent
(iii) Encourage teamwork and cooperation
(iv) Build discipline and self-control.
(v) Improve Caver opportunity's promote social interaction
(2 marks each item)

Categories of sport

(i) individual sports: Those are types of sport in which competitors do not rely another to achieve their goals, rather, they do as so at their own space. Example Athletics, boxing Cycling etc

(ii) partner sports: This refers to sports that need competitors, to work in pairs to rely on one another in order to achieve the goals for example, beach volleyball, badminton.

(iii) Team sports: These are competitive physical activities in which individuals work together in group as a teams to achieve a common goal. for example football, volleyball handball (3 marks each item)

9 (a) precautionary measures

(i) Warm up properly
(ii) Check the playing court
(iii) Wear proper sports active
(iv) Remove disfavours items
(v) check equipment before use
(vi) Hydrate well
(vii) Medical readiness (2 marks each item)

(b) A netball court: is a rectangular playing are with specific falafel measurements used in schools and official matches (1 marks

Drawing Netball court (15 marks)

